InteraWorks Expands International Team

DENVER, CO, November 1, 2018 – InteraWorks® is pleased to announce the expansion of our team in both delivery and operations to better serve our enterprise client partners in the US and abroad.

Joining our facilitation team are Steve Chapleski in Denver, CO, Hiren Modi in Gujarat, India, and ML Banchoff and Frank Leitzman in Austin, TX. Joining our Operations team in Austin, TX, is Nicole Gilbert and in Omaha, NE, Kris Gleason.

Steve Chapleski brings over 20 years of experience in coaching and facilitated delivery of leading performance and productivity programs worldwide. He is passionate about bringing the awareness, processes and tools necessary for initiating and guiding each person to thrive. His mission is to empower people at all levels to perform at their peak in the areas of life they deem most meaningful through training and coaching. Working with an extremely diverse international audience. some of his classes include 80% English as a 2nd language and he recently received the highest rated instructor award for a development program from one of the world's largest companies.

Hiren Modi has trained and coached nearly 150,000 people around the world, including work in the USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Malaysia, Singapore, Africa and Japan, as well as his home country of India. Hiren has actively coached and worked with individuals and large multinational organizations as well as small, medium businesses. Hiren specializes in creating high performance through distinctions of transformation and conversation management.

ML Banchoff has been a Corporate Trainer, Facilitator, Productivity Coach, Consultant and Speaker since 2005. She has facilitated over 300 training and development workshops globally. Her professionalism, unique humour and ability to quickly connect to a room, bring challenging topics home to participants in a meaningful, lasting way.

Frank Leitzman brings over 25 years of strategic financial planning and tactical application expertise by capitalizing on his personal experience as a professional aviator, financial advisor, coach and corporate trainer. Frank draws on his service as a Lieutenant in the United States Air Force and as an-16 fighter pilot to energetically connect and deliver vital concepts to his audience.

Nicole Gilbert works behind the scenes as Program Coordinator bringing her communication and problem-solving skills, creativity and energy in managing projects. She is well-versed in the details and excels in complex coordination of multiple projects.

Kris Gleason draws on her more than 25 years of experience in working in organizations of all sizes where she developed a passion for individual and organizational coaching. Kris is the resident expert in the Best Year Yet Producing Results® Online (PRO) goal setting and results tracking software, allowing her to support partners and clients all over the world.

“We are very excited and lucky to have this group of leaders join our team to help enable our growth this year,” shared Managing Partner, Anne-McGhee Stinson. “Each of these individuals bring world-class dedication and quality to their work and activate our purpose every day here at Interworks and in their own lives.”
