

Stacy Lindbloom

Client Services

Stacy oversees our client services. She serves an essential role ensuring every engagement is delivered seamlessly, from start to finish. She has an amazing ability to wade through complex projects and details with humor, grace, and ease. Our clients love working with Stacy, knowing they are in good hands.

Stacy has a Masters degree in elementary curriculum and reading and has extensive background in the education space with both children and adult learning.

Stacy lives in the Denver, Colorado area with her family.