

conflict to collaboration™

Unlock the hidden potential in every conversation.

Turn breakdowns into breakthroughs.

Conflict isn't the problem – how we respond to it is. In today's fast-paced, high-pressure workplace, unresolved tension can quickly derail team trust, productivity, and morale. Conflict to Collaboration transforms how leaders and teams experience conflict by shifting it from something to avoid into an opportunity for connection, clarity, and innovation. This dynamic program gives participants the tools to navigate challenging conversations with confidence, empathy, and intention.

What to Expect

- Identify your conflict patterns and reactive tendencies
- Learn and apply a practical framework to navigate conflict constructively
- Build skills in empathy, active listening, and emotional regulation
- Practice transforming tension into connection and alignment
- Increase your confidence in approaching difficult conversations

Leave with tools that turn conflict into a catalyst for clarity, trust, and forward momentum.

Conflict to Collaboration

Group Training

Format:

Onsite: 4 hours

Virtual: 2.5 hours

Audience:

New Hires, Professionals and/or Leaders

"I feel more prepared to resolve issues without escalating them – approaching conflict with curiosity rather than defensiveness."

– InteraWorks Participant

Why it Works

Grounded in how we think, learn, and understand emotional intelligence, Conflict to Collaboration helps rewire default responses to conflict. By understanding the brain's threat response and learning to regulate emotions, participants shift from reactive to responsive. Combined with proven communication models and strategies from behavioral psychology, this approach empowers people to stay present, listen deeply, and engage productively.

Results You'll Feel + See
